New York, December 22 .- The Gould lesues and Lehigh Valley attracted mosattention to-day in the stock market The advance in Lehigh Valley which has been conspicuous recently was con-Most of the buying of this stock was said to come from Philadelphia sources, and apparently was based upon the belief that some action may soon be taken in regard to the extra distribution to shareholders, the possi-bility of which has excited so much conjecture of late. The quotation was advanced three points to 186%, the highest price on record, although profit-taking later reduced this gain. Among the Gould securities trading was especially heavy in the Wabash 4 per cent, bonds.

especially heavy in the Wabash 4 per cent bonds.

A keen demand for these bends developed late in the day, and they rose nearly three points to 55½, as compared with 50 early in the week, on the announcement of the receivership. The preferred stock also advanced strongly. The Denver and Rio Grande securities showed pronounced weakness early in the day, but later railled sharply. On the recovery the 5 per cent bonds jumped from 50 to 85.

The stock market as a whole showed the customary symptoms of this season

The stock market as a whole showed the customary symptoms of this season of the year, with a triple holiday at hand. Trading was on a small scale, and prices moved within an unusually narrow range. Final changes were inconsequential in most cases. Speculative sentiment was mildly beartsh. The day was without occurrences of influence upon values. Trade reports disclosed little change. closed little change.

In the money market there were no indications of stress auch as prevails abroad. The banks this week received more than $11,000,000 from the interior, about $6,000,000 fees than last week, when the movement was the heaviest which has been recorded in many weeks. Bank exchanges over the country for the week again made a favorable comparison with last year, the gain exceeding 5 per cent.

The bond market was irregular, with a large proportion of the transactions in the Wabash fours. Total sales were, par value, $3,833,000. United States bonds were unchanged on call for the week. Total sales of stocks for the day were $349,700 shares.

mitis which had been closed down for many weeks have just started up more optimistic reports are being received in regard to the spring trade in cotton goods hitherto stagnant. Things in the Chinese empire seem to point to an earlier resumption of trade than at one time seemed possible. Liverpool, for a time, was a good buyer here. On the other hand, the census bureau's glinning report was considered bearish and as pointing to a crop of 15,500,000 bales or more. Stress is also laid on the fact that the ginning up to December 12, alrendy comes pretty close to the crop estimates, for many of the States recently issued by the government, and that in the case of Florida the ginning already exceeds that estimate. Not a few expect the total quantity ginned up to the middle of January to exceed the recent crop estimate of the government of 14,855,000 bales.

Ginning reports will be issued up to the third week in March.

Moreover, on the advance the Continent is said to have largely withdrawn from the spot markets of the South so far as new business is concerned. The Continent has latterly been selling in Liverpool, being a good buyer there for an extended period. And now comes the talk of a big strike in Lancashire involving some 100,000 hands. Also the movement of the crop in this country, which showed a slackening for a time, has latterly increased and estimates of the quantity increased and estimates of the quantity increased and estimates of the quantity poets. The South is reported to be selling freely on any upward tirn of prices, though withdrawing on declines. The technical speculative position has been weakened here, it is contended, by the driving in of the shorts by the big spot interests. The object in putting up December was to get cotton to New York, and it is said that the spot people who have been working the buil side of late really expect lower prices later on before the real turn for the better takes place. However this may be, bears are certainly more cautious that the next acreage will be consider Bradstreet's Report.

New York, December 22.—Bradstreet's to-morrow will say: 'While the weather has not been of the best for holiday shopping, and country trade especially has been retarded, holiday inituences have been instrumental in inducing a larg volume of buying at retail, and early reports of volume of this department of activity are generally as favorable as last year in most sections. Least satisfactory advices come from the South, owing to the low price of cotton, and parts of the Northwest, where the depressing influences which have traversed the entire country still linger.

In the larger fields of basic endeavor the events of the week have been main, ly favorable. Good effects of the late securities decline in cotton goods are found in a large amount of demand for certain varieties of the latter, with some advances in prices of leading makes.

The fron and steel trade continues to evince the cheerfulness hitherto noted, and a very good trade has been done in steel rails during the week. The boot and shoe trade sends irregular reports, accordingly as Eastern and Western reports are examined. The leather trade is strong, sole leather leading, while fashion changes affect calls for patent grades.

Business failures in the United States for the week ending December 21 were 293, against 309 hast week and 271 in the like week of 1910.
